NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

From and After April 1, 1919, the Price of Edwards Abstract From Records Will Be $2.50 a Month.

In common with every other publication, Edwards Abstract From Records is confronted with the problem of advancing costs and because of the conditions in the real estate business and kindred lines to which our service has become a necessity, with decreasing revenue. Up to the present time the management has absorbed these advances, but the time has come when some of the burden must be distributed in other ways.

The cost of everything entering into the service rendered by Edwards Abstract From Records has increased from 20 to 35 per cent; paper has advanced 100 per cent over the price of two years ago. The subscription price must, therefore, be increased if the standard of service heretofore maintained is to be continued.

In view of these facts, the subscription price of this publication will be advanced, beginning April 1, 1919, to $2.50 per month.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

From and After April 1, 1919, the Price of Edwards Abstract From Records Will Be $2.50 a Month.

In common with every other publication, Edwards Abstract From Records is confronted with the problem of advancing costs and because of the conditions in the real estate business and kindred lines to which our service has become a necessity, with decreasing revenue. Up to the present time the management has absorbed these advances, but the time has come when some of the burden must be distributed in other ways.

The cost of everything entering into the service rendered by Edwards Abstract From Records has increased from 20 to 35 per cent; paper has advanced 100 per cent over the price of two years ago. The subscription price must, therefore, be increased if the standard of service heretofore maintained is to be continued.

In view of these facts, the subscription price of this publication will be advanced, beginning April 1, 1919, to $2.50 per month.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

From and After April 1, 1919, the Price of Edwards Abstract From Records Will Be $2.50 a Month.

In common with every other publication, Edwards Abstract From Records is confronted with the problem of advancing costs and because of the conditions in the real estate business and kindred lines to which our service has become a necessity, with decreasing revenue. Up to the present time the management has absorbed these advances, but the time has come when some of the burden must be distributed in other ways.

The cost of everything entering into the service rendered by Edwards Abstract From Records has increased from 20 to 35 per cent; paper has advanced 100 per cent over the price of two years ago. The subscription price must, therefore, be increased if the standard of service heretofore maintained is to be continued.

In view of these facts, the subscription price of this publication will be advanced, beginning April 1, 1919, to $2.50 per month.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

From and After April 1, 1919, the Price of Edwards Abstract From Records Will Be $2.50 a Month.

In common with every other publication, Edwards Abstract From Records is confronted with the problem of advancing costs and because of the conditions in the real estate business and kindred lines to which our service has become a necessity, with decreasing revenue. Up to the present time the management has absorbed these advances, but the time has come when some of the burden must be distributed in other ways.

The cost of everything entering into the service rendered by Edwards Abstract From Records has increased from 20 to 35 per cent; paper has advanced 100 per cent over the price of two years ago. The subscription price must, therefore, be increased if the standard of service heretofore maintained is to be continued.

In view of these facts, the subscription price of this publication will be advanced, beginning April 1, 1919, to $2.50 per month.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

From and After April 1, 1919, the Price of Edwards Abstract From Records Will Be $2.50 a Month.

In common with every other publication, Edwards Abstract From Records is confronted with the problem of advancing costs and because of the conditions in the real estate business and kindred lines to which our service has become a necessity, with decreasing revenue. Up to the present time the management has absorbed these advances, but the time has come when some of the burden must be distributed in other ways.

The cost of everything entering into the service rendered by Edwards Abstract From Records has increased from 20 to 35 per cent; paper has advanced 100 per cent over the price of two years ago. The subscription price must, therefore, be increased if the standard of service heretofore maintained is to be continued.

In view of these facts, the subscription price of this publication will be advanced, beginning April 1, 1919, to $2.50 per month.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

From and After April 1, 1919, the Price of Edwards Abstract From Records Will Be $2.50 a Month.

In common with every other publication, Edwards Abstract From Records is confronted with the problem of advancing costs and because of the conditions in the eal estate business and kindred lines to which our service has become a necessity, with decreasing revenue. Up to the present time the management has absorbed these advances, but the time has come when some of the burden must be distributed in other ways.

The cost of everything entering into the service rendered by Edwards Abstract From Records has increased from 20 to 35 per cent; paper has advanced 100 per cent over the price of two years ago. The subscription price must, therefore, be increased if the standard of service heretofore maintained is to be continued.

In view of these facts, the subscription price of this publication will be advanced, beginning April 1, 1919, to $2.50 per month.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

From and After April 1, 1919, the Price of Edwards Abstract From Records Will Be $2.50 a Month.

In common with every other publication, Edwards Abstract From Records is confronted with the problem of advancing costs and because of the conditions in the eal estate business and kindred lines to which our service has become a necessity, with decreasing revenue. Up to the present time the management has absorbed these advances, but the time has come when some of the burden must be distributed in other ways.

The cost of everything entering into the service rendered by Edwards Abstract From Records has increased from 20 to 35 per cent; paper has advanced 100 per cent over the price of two years ago. The subscription price must, therefore, be increased if the standard of service heretofore maintained is to be continued.

In view of these facts, the subscription price of this publication will be advanced, beginning April 1. 1919, to $2.50 per month.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

From and After April 1, 1919, the Price of Edwards Abstract From Records Will Be $2.50 a Month.

In common with every other publication, Edwards Abstract From Records is confronted with the problem of advancing costs and because of the conditions in the eal estate business and kindred lines to which our service has become a necessity, with decreasing revenue. Up to the present time the management has absorbed these advances, but the time has come when some of the burden must be distributed in other ways.

The cost of everything entering into the service rendered by Edwards Abstract From Records has increased from 20 to 35 per cent; paper has advanced 100 per cent over the price of two years ago. The subscription price must, therefore, be increased if the standard of service heretofore maintained is to be continued.

In view of these facts, the subscription price of this publication will be advanced, beginning April 1 1919, to $2.50 per month.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

From and After April 1, 1919, the Price of Edwards Abstract From Records Will Be $2.50 a Month.

In common with every other publication, Edwards Abstract From Records is confronted with the problem of advancing costs and because of the conditions in the eal estate business and kindred lines to which our service has become a necessity, with decreasing revenue. Up to the present time the management has absorbed these advances, but the time has come when some of the burden must be distributed in other ways.

The cost of everything entering into the service rendered by Edwards Abstract From Records has increased from 20 to 35 per cent; paper has advanced 100 per cent over the price of two years ago. The subscription price must, therefore, be increased if the standard of service heretofore maintained is to be continued.

In view of these facts, the subscription price of this publication will be advanced, beginning April 1. 1919, to $2.50 per month.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

From and After April 1, 1919, the Price of Edwards Abstract From Records Will Be $2.50 a Month.

In common with every other publication, Edwards Abstract From Records is confronted with the problem of advancing costs and because of the conditions in the eal estate business and kindred lines to which our service has become a necessity, with decreasing revenue. Up to the present time the management has absorbed these advances, but the time has come when some of the burden must be distributed in other ways.

The cost of everything entering into the service rendered by Edwards Abstract From Records has increased from 20 to 35 per cent; paper has advanced 100 per cent over the price of two years ago. The subscription price must, therefore, be increased if the standard of service heretofore maintained is to be continued.

In view of these facts, the subscription price of this publication will be advanced, beginning April 1, 1919, to $2.50 per month.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

From and After April 1, 1919, the Price of Edwards Abstract From Records Will Be $2.50 a Month.

In common with every other publication, Edwards Abstract From Records is confronted with the problem of advancing costs and because of the conditions in the eal estate business and kindred lines to which our service has become a necessity, with decreasing revenue. Up to the present time the management has absorbed these advances, but the time has come when some of the burden must be distributed in other ways.

The cost of everything entering into the service rendered by Edwards Abstract From Records has increased from 20 to 35 per cent; paper has advanced 100 per cent over the price of two years ago. The subscription price must, therefore, be increased if the standard of service heretofore maintained is to be continued.

In view of these facts, the subscription price of this publication will be advanced, beginning April 1, 1919, to $2.50 per month.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

From and After April 1, 1919, the Price of Edwards Abstract From Records Will Be $2.50 a Month.

In common with every other publication, Edwards Abstract From Records is confronted with the problem of advancing costs and because of the conditions in the eal estate business and kindred lines to which our service has become a necessity, with decreasing revenue. Up to the present time the management has absorbed these advances, but the time has come when some of the burden must be distributed in other ways.

The cost of everything entering into the service rendered by Edwards Abstract From Records has increased from 20 to 35 per cent; paper has advanced 100 per cent over the price of two years ago. The subscription price must, therefore, be increased if the standard of service heretofore maintained is to be continued.

In view of these facts, the subscription price of this publication will be advanced, beginning April 1, 1919, to $2.50 per month.
